DEPUTY HEADTEACHER VACANCY

Salary Range L6 - L10 (depending on experience)

Required for September, 2025

Due to the upcoming retirement of our current Deputy Headteacher, we are seeking an experienced and visionary leader who is committed to building on our school's achievements and driving its continued success and progression.

Lionel Walden School is a primary school in the Fenland village of Doddington. There are 209 children on roll aged 4 to 11 years old. We also have a Pre-School on site which is managed by the school.

We are seeking a leader who is passionate about education, committed to inclusion, and motivated to make a real difference. The successful candidate will demonstrate:

- A proven track record of successful leadership and teaching experience.
- The ability to inspire and motivate pupils and staff to achieve their best.
- A commitment to fostering a nurturing and inclusive school culture.
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills, with the ability to build positive relationships with all stakeholders.
- A forward-thinking approach to teaching, learning, and curriculum development.
- High expectations for pupil achievement and behaviour.

In return, we offer:-

- The opportunity to join a school with a strong sense of community and a commitment to excellence.
- A supportive Headteacher, governors, and staff team dedicated to your professional growth.
- Access to high-quality professional development opportunities.
- A welcoming and inclusive environment where every voice is valued.
- A commitment to the health and wellbeing of all stakeholders.
- Strong relationships with surrounding schools and organisations enabling us to work together to provide opportunities the children of Fenland.

Further information on our school and achievements can be seen on our website.

Visits are warmly welcomed. To arrange a visit, please contact our Headteacher, Mr Steve Abey, on 01354 740405, or via email (head@lionelwalden.cambs.sch.uk).
